

Year 12	T1	T2	T3	T4	T5	T6
	Paper 1: Social Influence: types and explanations of conformity, variables affecting conformity, conformity to social roles, explanations for obedience Paper 2: Approaches in Psychology: Origins of Psychology, psychodynamic approach, behaviourist approach, social learning theory, cognitive approach, Humanistic Psychology Exampro assessments for each topic	Paper 1: Social Influence: situational and dispositional variables affecting obedience, explanations of resistance to social influence, minority influence, the role of social influence processes in social change Paper 2: Approaches in Psychology: Biological approach and comparison of approaches Paper 2: Research Methods: Experimental method, observational techniques, self-report techniques,	Paper 1: Memory: Multistore memory model (MSM), features of each MSM store, types of long-term memory, working memory model (WMM), features of WMM Paper 2: Research Methods: Pilot studies, experimental designs, observational design, questionnaire construction, variables, control, demand characteristics and investigator effects, ethics, role of peer review, the implications of psychological	Paper 1: Memory: Explanations for forgetting, factors affecting accuracy of eye witness testimony (EWT), improving the accuracy of EWT Paper 2: Research Methods: Features of science, reporting psychological investigations, quantitative and qualitative data; primary and secondary data, descriptive statistics, presentation and display of quantitative data, distributions, analysis and interpretation of	Paper 1: Attachment: Caregiver-infant interactions in humans, stages of attachment, explanations of attachment, Ainsworth's 'Strange Situation'. Paper 1: Psychopathology: Definitions of abnormality, behavioural, emotional and cognitive characteristics of phobias, depression and OCD. Paper 2: Research Methods: Calculating the sign test, probability and significance,	Paper 1: Attachment: Cultural variations, Bowlby's theory of maternal deprivation, Romanian orphan studies, influence of early attachment on childhood and adult relationships Paper 1: Psychopathology: Behavioural approach to explaining and treating phobias, Cognitive approach to explaining and treating depression, Biological approach to explaining and treating OCD. Paper 2: Biopsychology:

	Initial assessment quizzes Two summative assessment for each paper at the end of each small term	correlations, content analysis, case studies, aims, hypotheses, sampling Exampro assessments for each topic quizzes Two summative assessment for each paper at the end of each small term	research for the economy, reliability and validity. Exampro assessments for each topic quizzes Two summative assessment for each paper at the end of each small term	correlation, levels of measurement, content analysis and coding, thematic analysis, introduction to statistical testing. Exampro assessments for each topic quizzes Two summative assessment for each paper at the end of each small term	factors affecting the choice of statistical test: Spearman's rho, Pearson's r, Wilcoxon, Mann-Whitney, related t-test, unrelated t-test, Chi-Squared Exampro assessments for each topic quizzes Two summative assessment for each paper at the end of each small term	The divisions of the nervous system, the structure and function of neurons, process of synaptic transmission, function of the endocrine system, fight or flight response Exampro assessments for each topic quizzes Two summative assessment for each paper at the end of each small term
--	--	--	---	--	--	--

All assessments are exam question focussed as per requirements of the AQA exam board.